

Kelly Jean Smith

Apr 3, 2019

Kelly Jean Smith passed away peacefully from natural causes on March 17, 2019, at home in Montara, Calif. She was born in Austin, Minn., on Sept. 24, 1946. When she was 18 she adventured out west to California and met the love of her life, Donald Long. She spent the next 47 years of her life living with him in the Bay Area. Kelly was a paralegal who enjoyed working in San Francisco, country western dancing, teaching, and walks on the beach.

She was preceded in death by her parents, James Oliver Smith and Doris Marie Smith, and her sister, Judy Kay Thompson. She is survived by her partner, Donald Long, sister Sally Ann Coulter, a niece and several nephews, and other loving family, and by Oreo, her beloved pet. She will be deeply missed and will remain in our hearts forever.

The family requests that people make donations to the American Heart Association in lieu of flowers.
